An efficient approach for figuring out a price is to ship out a survey to your present customers. If these clients have already bought an book from you, ask for their opinion when it comes to price. Do this by creating a sales page for the new e book, but do not embrace a value on that page. One other technique is to test out costs by creating a number of duplicate gross sales pages with completely different prices on each page. Ensure that your sales copy is precisely the same on each web page, and consists of your selling-handle sentence. Then determine for every page the conversion ratio between visitors to your website and sales of your book. It will tell you what your optimum value is.
